The certificate of incorporation of the Boyd, Hamilton & Co. was left for record at Clerk Hook's office Saturday.

The incorporators are Henry P. Boyd, of Allegheny; Joseph A. Hamilton, of Pittsburgh; and John B. Chapman, of Mars, Pa.

Real Estate Sales.

On Saturday Auctioneer Haller sold twenty-two acres of timber land belonging to B. Hedges to Albert Doone; consideration $225.00.

James Brown purchased the Harding property, on East street, Saturday, from Jacob Brown; consideration $2,020. Auctioneer Harvey made the sale.

Escaped From the Reform School.

A telegram from Gratton, received last night, says: John Kony, from Hancock county, and Albert Weekly, of Harbort county, both about sixteen years of age, escaped from the reform school this morning and made for parts unknown; $10 reward is offered by Supt. Shaw for the apprehension of the wayward youth.

"Silver Bill" Warner.

General A. J. Warner is to address a farmers' picnic out at Lewisville next Saturday. He is the free silver champion, and wants to see the Populists grow fast enough to bring one or the other of the old parties to that issue. He is not particular as to which one it may be, but in Ohio would prefer the Republicans.

Work of the Police.

Philip Campbell, by Snyder; George Reed, by Watson, and William Tanner, colored, will answer to the charge of wife beating. Toddy Flynn, by Officer O'Brien; Charles Williams, John Wilson and Dave Gerwin, by Officer Wilkie, were a quartette of disorderlies run in Saturday night. "Ollie" Crawford struck a woman on the Island last night, and was arrested by Officer West.

A Pathetic Incident.

In connection with the sad death by drowning of young Harry Boston in the "back" river at the upper end of the Island Thursday afternoon a pathetic incident occurred. One of the boys with young Boston was a son of Otto Stump, about the same age as Boston. When it was seen that the latter was about to drown unless help reached him, and as he was powerless to render that help he sank down on the sand and lifting his hands in an earnest attitude prayed God to save his companion's life. Young Stump was nearly heartbroken when his prayer was denied.

Mr. C. Selbert Going Abroad.

One of the old German citizens of the county leaves this week for a visit to and perhaps a permanent stay in his native land. It is Mr. Conrad Selbert, of Pleasant Valley, whose name those latter days has been quite intimately connected with the sale of lots to residents of that suburb. He came to Wheeling shortly before the war, and worked first at his trade as a bookbinder with the late William Ewing, but afterwards removed to his present locality and engaged first in the dairy and afterwards in the ice business. In both of which he prospered and reared a large family. He is now past seventy years of age, and, inasmuch as his children are generally settled in homes of their own, his wife being dead, he is inclined to go abroad and make his home once more among the scenes and associations and kindred of his early life. It is hoped that Mr. Selbert's absence will be but temporary, and that after the novelty of the change has worn away he will return here to live yet many years.

THREE races every day and some days four will be sufficient to entertain the lovers of the sport at Mountville, W. Va., this week.

Suits to order $15, reduced from $17 and $20, at Morton O. Stout & Co.'s, Merchant Tailors, under McLure House. JOHN L. RICK, Manager.

Notice.

I want every man and woman in the United States interested in the Optum and Whiskey habits to have one of my books on those diseases. Address D. M. WOOLLEY, Atlanta, Ga., Box 390, and he will be sent you free.

ON TO WASHINGTON.

Wheeling as Represented at the Big Pythian Encampment.

SPECIAL PENNSYLVANIA TRAIN

Left With the Knights and Their Friends Two Hundred Strong Yesterday Morning—The Nobby Wheeling Stogie Souvenir—The Cars Handsomely Decorated—Wheeling is for Louisville.

Yesterday morning the Wheeling and Benwood delegations to the grand convocation of the Knights of Pythias and encampment of the uniform rank of the order, which commence to-day at Washington City and continue throughout the week, left over the Pennsylvania road in a special train of four coaches and a baggage car. There were about ninety of the uniform rank boys and one hundred of their friends and members of the lodges.

The two city uniform rank divisions, Cour de Lion and Bernard Shanley, formed at their halls, and, accompanied by Miesor's full band, marched in brilliant uniforms to the Pennsylvania station. A coach was sent down to Benwood and brought up the Benwood division—J. W. Mather, No. 23.

The cars were beautifully decorated by committees, with flowing streamers, flags and color, and presented a fine appearance. One coach, the rear one, was devoted to the exclusive occupancy of the ladies and their escorts. The train pulled out promptly at 8 o'clock and was scheduled to reach the nation's capital early in the evening. This is the first day—light excursion through to Washington that has been sent over the Pennsylvania road from Wheeling and all anticipated the trip would be a pleasant one. Mr. Edward C. Schoen, of the local Pennsylvania ticket office, went along with the party and saw that everything was made as pleasant as possible. The following is the roster of the three divisions:

Cour de Lion division No. 1.—Captain G. W. Weisberger, Lieutenant R. E. Shadler, Herald F. C. Weisberger, William J. Cooke and wife, Charles E. Hannon and wife, Philip Youngman and wife, George J. Weisner and wife, James H. Lancaster, wife and mother, A. L. Downs, C. L. Ullery, J. A. Glycer, W. K. Vogt, J. B. Thomas, William H. Boughner, H. C. Senne, Charles H. Gelger, W. O. Thomas, John Murray, John Kimmins, Gus Dasher, Howard Raynor, Nathan Ford, W. J. Clark, M. A. Denzer, Harry Gell, John D. Hall, C. W. Hartman, S. M. Laughlin, J. C. Medick, G. B. Miller, A. L. St. Myers and Misses Louisa Walther, Amelia Reese, Annie Senne and Emma Grella. Bernard Shanley division No. 2.—Col. B. O. Gatch, Major James T. McGee, Surgeon Dr. McGrath, Capt. Frank H. Lieby, Lieut. W. F. Beck, Lieut. W. H. Rose, R. W. Connelly, William Swartz, H. F. Wren, Harry Windsor, Edward Grosserth, D. W. Phillips, Henry Jaegerman, Jess Rose, Charles Smith, Charles Montgomery, Harry Goodwin, Henry Nachtigal, Louis Britt, E. W. Higgins, Spence Hager, Robert Huston, Jacob Schlemmer, Charles Hillos, Louis Hartong, George Hartong, George Livingston, Fred Keis, M. M. Taylor, W. H. Bone.

General J. W. Mather division Benwood 23—Captain Paul Heidel and wife; Lieutenant J. D. Marple; Herald R. Watson; Charles Seabright and wife; C. H. Seabright and wife; J. T. King, John Tobey, E. L. Steen, Booth Goodwin, Nathan Goodwin, Jackson Jones, Albert Reidel, Samuel Hall, Edward Hoyt, James Fowler, William Sorig and Al. Bayard.

The Wheeling boys are favorable to Louisville for the next biennial convocation of the order and two years ago worked hard for the Bourbon metropolis. This year the Wheeling boys went to Washington provided with hundreds of ribbon badges inscribed simply "Louisville, 1896," and will do all possible to secure the convocation for that city.

The Wheeling contingent took along 3,000 of the Wheeling souvenir stogie badges and by to-night they will dangle on 8,000 manly breasts. It is a good advertisement for Wheeling and for the stogie makers, Hannon Bros.

A special telegram was received by the INTELLIGENCER last night to the effect that the Wheeling special train arrived at Washington at 8:30 p. m., twelve hours and one-half after the departure from Wheeling.

The time for opening of the fall term of Linsley Institute at Wheeling, has been changed to September 10. This well known school is in charge of Prof. John M. Bird, who has had great success in bringing up to the very highest grade of success and popularity. Brooke county has always been well represented among the students and this fall will see a number of Brooke county boys in attendance. The school has military, English and classical courses and fits for entrance to any college.—Wellbury Herald.

LIGHT-WEIGHT OVERCOATS—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

Battery!

Light-Weight Overcoats!

Your greatest need now. Their comfort makes necessities of them. We're not pig-headed nor blindly conceited, if anybody made a better garment than we now handle we'd have 'em, but they don't, tailored as ours are the best. They won't admit that they're as good as can be made to order, but that's true, too. Fashion is dead struck on length again this season. So ours are long and full back, and we've got 'em in whatever shade, whatever weave, whatever size you want.

$5 to $20.

Fall Suits Are Here Whenever You Want Them.

BOYS' & CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

This season doesn't get very old before the little folks must be supplied. Schools opening hurries matters for them. If it's to-morrow you come you'll find us ready for you. It's been a hard task to overdo last year's good work, but we've succeeded by crowding and contriving. We've got more room, and quickly filled it with the largest variety of Boys' Long Pants and Children's Short Pants Suits we ever had, more novelties, all exclusive, and when you see the qualities and hear the prices you'll say we have done wonders.

OUR NECKWEAR DEPARTMENT

Is alive with the Fall Shades and Shapes with our 25 and 50 centers to the front as usual.

Boys, of course you've seen THE HUB'S Maltiform Combination Top, the greatest puzzle of the age. Hundreds of them in use. Everybody is wild about them. We will pay $5.00 in gold to the boy or girl that can spin it in the greatest number of ways. Contest to take place in our new and elegant Boys' and Children's Department, October 4. Try your luck. Try your luck. A Top with every Boys' Suit.

FALL, 1894--THE HUB.

ALL our big guns are sighted and ready for the Fall campaign, loaded to the muzzle with competition-killing quality and variety. We've worked hard, probed deep into the markets, weighed values carefully, compared styles critically, and brought the best to be had in all the country to our counters. The flurry in money matters has seriously embarrassed many of the leading manufacturers, but whenever we want we carry the cash, gaining concessions in price, that you shall share with us, creating opportunities that you shall profit in. Already the great army of buyers is besieging our citadel of fashion. The fleeing season has noticed Autumn close to the border line of Summer, making the Summer weights needful and a change of style desirable. Every demand is met, every whim is fostered, every confidence is sustained in this great aggregation of wearables.
